05 Screening Method & Scoring

A. Screening Method: Special Selection

- Interview(Interviews will be conducted)

※ If, for unavoidable reasons, such as delayed visa issuance, an applicant living abroad is unable to attend an interview, it may be acceptable to hold a virtual interview after verification of identification.

In such cases, evidence, such as a certificate of non-entry of Korea, must be submitted.

B. Scoring Method and Points System

Admission type	Document review	Interview	Total Points	Note
Master's Course	Eligibility	100	100
Doctorate Course		100	100

○ Screening Methods for Each Category

- The suitability of the applicant's submitted documents will be reviewed
- During the interview, learning competency, knowledge of major, research plans, academic attitude and ability to express oneself will be assessed.
- For preparation of interview for the Department of Fine Arts, refer to <Note 3>. Applications must be submitted to the department office 3 days before the interview.

<Note 3> Preparation Materials for Interview with Dept. of Fine Arts

Subject for Examination	Announcement of Research Plan and Presentation of Portfolio (10 minutes presentation, 5 minutes question and answer)

C. Selection of Applicants and Disqualification from the Process

- 1) The number of applicants admitted is determined by each department/disciplinary program. If two applicants have the same score, and only one can be chosen, criteria for the selection are as following:
 - ① The applicant who has a higher score in academic competency related to their major.
 - ② The applicant who has a higher score in academic attitude and communication ability.
 - ※ The number of applicants admitted will be allocated according to the proportion of support per recruitment unit if the number of applicants exceeds the admission quota.
- 2) In the following situations, applications will be considered incomplete, and applicants will be disqualified. There may be additional grounds for disqualification based on the selection policies as determined by MNU's Graduate School Admission Committee.
 - ① Applicants who fail to attend the required interview
 - ② Applicants who score less than 40% in the interview
 - ③ Applicants who submit documents containing false information (including typing errors).
 - ④ Applicants who fail the document screening process, including those who submit incomplete documentation.

※ Applicants who submit an expected certificate of graduation must submit a certificate of graduation and educational background certificate before the start of this semester. Failure to do so will result in admission being revoked.

08 Reminders for Applicants

- 1) Applicants must fill in every required field correctly. Applicants are responsible for any disadvantages arising from typing errors, missing documents, etc. Any falsification or misrepresentation in application documents will result in the application being immediately revoked even if the applicant would have otherwise been accepted.
- 2) Since it is not possible to modify or cancel the application form after the application for admission is completed, it is necessary to be aware of the recruitment guidelines and check the information entered before the application is received.
- 3) Applicants can apply for only one department and cannot change the department that they apply for after the documents are accepted.
- 4) Once an application is received, it is assumed that the applicant agrees to their personal information being used for admission purposes. The personal information of applicants will not be used or offered for any purpose other than admission.
- 5) All received documents and application fees will not be returned. If an applicant is unable to finish the admission process for unavoidable reasons such as natural disaster, diseases, accidents, etc., the application fee minus a service fee will be returned.
- 6) If it becomes known that an applicant is ineligible or has falsified information (grades, forged and/or falsified documents, substitute exam-takers, etc.), acceptance or admission will be canceled.
- 7) Admitted applicants must register during the registration period. If not, they are considered to have no intention to enroll in graduate school, and will be treated as a waiver of registration.
- 8) Admission will be cancelled if the applicant is found to be a non-graduate as a result of an academic background inquiry. In this case, the registration fee will be refunded in accordance with the refund policy of the university.
- 9) Applicants should provide correct and current contact information during the period of admission selection. The Graduate School of MNU is not responsible for any results arising from incorrect contact information.
